

MAY SELL SEALS OF WEEK

Next With Mayor Tomer Campaign for Tuberculous to Start Soon.

Seals of tuberculosis in Rock Island will be undertaken by Mayor Star if arrangements are satisfactorily made at a special meeting with Mayor Harry Schriver, chairman of the Rock Island Lower Tuberculosis association, tomorrow morning.
Rock Island has been slow in its response to the need of an organization to take over the work.

Mrs. L. R. Mace has taken up the matter with the Eastern Star and in all probability that organization will put on the sale.

The aim of Mayor Schriver is to put on the sale in one or two days, by establishing booths in downtown stores and banks where the seals and health books will be sold.
The seals will cost her 1 cent each and the books from 5¢ to 10¢. It is hoped to hold the sale within the next week so that the campaign will not conflict with the heavy Christmas shopping which will be under way by the end of next week.

Now that the cost of things are coming down, the New Harper Cafe will serve a special $1.00 Table d'Hote dinner Sundays from 12 to 2 p. m. and every evening from 5:30 to 8 p. m. Under new management.

HANGS SELF IN FARM CORN CRIB

Prosperous Farmer at Mason City Suicide—No Cause Attributed for Act.

Mason City, Ill., Dec. 10.—Edward B. Jones, a prosperous farmer living six miles northwest of this city, committed suicide by hanging himself to a rafter in a corn crib on his place yesterday morning.
No reasons are known for his act, as he seemed to be in the best of spirits, when last seen alive by neighbors.

NOT MUCH CHOICE LEFT FOR SEATS TO SEE PAVLOVA

Seats for the Pavlova ballet were going so fast this morning that those who arrived about noon were given scarcely any selection. From the sale today a packed house is assured when Mlle. Anna Pavlova, her ballet and symphony orchestra appear in the Davenport coliseum on Dec. 27. Those who are planning on attending this splendid treat are advised to attend to seat reservations immediately.

When Mlle. Pavlova appears here she will have as her dancing partner Alexandre Volinine, and will be supported by another noted Russian artist, Marie Olemeva, now induced to America for the first time.

An especially organized symphony orchestra will be directed by Theodore Stier, who has been musical director for Mlle. Pavlova on former American tours.

PAGEANT OF COLOR WITNESSED AT SIAMESE COURT

Phoenix, Ariz.—A colorful pageant attends the presentation of a foreign diplomat to the king of Siam, according to a letter received here from G. W. P. Hunt, United States minister to Siam, who described his own presentation Sept.
6, last. The American minister said he was one of 47 Americans in Bangkok, a city of 800,000. Of his presentation at the royal palace he wrote:

"We started across an immense paved court to the royal entrance.
There was a fanfare of trumpets and two bodies of household troops stood at attention. The royal colors were displayed and with uncovered heads we passed on to the stone staircase which for the occasion was laid with a heavy red plush carpeting. Along each side were stationed guards with ancient looking halberds.

"We were ushered into a large rotunda. Our hats were left on a table. Then we turned to the right, mounted a few more stairs and came into another long room with lofty windows along one side. Between the windows were niches in which stood knights in armor (without the knights themselves, of course.) Along the other side of this long room or passage there was a row of beautiful marble pillars and beyond them a large room.

At the end of the corridor stood a chamberlain, rather stout and abandoned in rich dress and ablaze with orders on his breast.

"Suddenly, folding doors opened as if by unseen hands and I walked into the presence of the only despotic monarch left in the world.
And as if befitting the reception of an envoy from the greatest republic on earth, he was dressed very simply in a long frock coat.

"The Prince D, who is at the head of the foreign office, presented me and retired to the rear of the room while I read to the king, as etiquette requires, my brief speech and he replied in Siamese in like manner.

"When this ceremony was done, he smiled and we sat down and had our little talk, for the king, you know, speaks perfect English. He is a host of others, like all Siamese is quite plump, and impresses one as being a real chap."

FOODSTUFFS FOR BASKETS.

ing to contribute foodstuffs, pre-
